

Improving the lives of the cared for by supporting caregivers.

Use this part of the form to interview your potential employer.

How robust is your mentor program?
Will I have a mentor at my first shift? For each new client?
Will my skills & experience be matched to the needs of the client(s)?
What client needs information will be provided to me before the first visit?
What will my pay rate be & what is it based on?
Is their opportunity for advancement?

Use this part of the form before you go to your first client's home.

Name of my mentor & cell number.
Who do I call if they don't show? Cell number?
Will that call be answered? If not, will it be promptly returned?
What do I do if the call is not promptly returned?
Who do I call if a situation is above my ability or out of my comfort level?
What do I do / who should I call if the next caregiver fails to show at the end of my shift?
Who do I inform when I can't make it to a scheduled shift?
Other information I need / should know about client / their home.	Who else lives in the home. Exotic pets. Registered sex offender.